

Can you create a Help topic describing the Operations resource?

operations:

`get:`

`summary: Types of operations`

`description: |`

The Operations endpoint returns information about the types of operations offered at a given location. The response includes the display name and other details about each operation, and lists the operation types in the proper display order.

`parameters:`

- `- name: operationname`
`in: query`
`description: The medical name of the operation.`
`required: true`
`type: string`
- `- name: operationduration`
`in: query`
`description: The standard duration for the operation of this type.`
`required: true`
`type: number`

Answer

/operations

GET /operations

Summary

Information on types of operations.

Description

The Operations endpoint returns information about the types of operations offered at a given location. The response includes the display name and other details about each operation, and lists the operation types in the proper display order.

Parameters

Parameter	Located in	Description	Required	Type
operationname	query	The medical name of the operation.	true	string
operationduration	query	The standard duration for the operation of this type.	true	number

Response messages

Code	Description	Schema
200	The operation name for a particular patient
401	Unauthorized
403	Forbidden
404	Not Found	