Cluster Recipe 2 - Overlapping Card Cluster

Journaling card

- Rectangular or square
- Room for overlapping elements

1-2 overlays

- Unshadowed
- Go behind the card
- Examples: paint, scribbles, brushes, stamps, or transfers

2-4 elements

- Must be shadowed, so no overlays
- Go in front of the card, overlapping it
- Examples: tags, alphas, flowers, hearts, or small berries

Additional Guidelines for Recipe 2

- When overlapping a journaling card, avoid hiding any important details of the card, like words in a phrase.
- Always add a shadow to elements, but never shadow overlays.
- Keep all overlays behind the card and all elements in front of the card.
- All overlays should peek out behind the card.
- All elements should overlap the card and stack on top of each other.
- Avoid choosing large solid elements (like big tags or stickers) that will hide other layers.
- Use the same kit for all parts of the cluster.
