The Dress

Mom and I searched for a long time (we were engaged for over two years) for just the right dress for our wedding. We both fell in love with this one that was an older style, reduced to clear at a local bridal shop. It was an astronomical price for us at just over $500 but somehow mom made it work. I was completely taken by the details of the round skirt that followed behind me in a train that made me feel like a princess.
