

A thick teal border surrounds the central text area.

welcome

INTRODUCTION TO EPIDEMIOLOGY

EPIDEMIOLOGY

The study of how disease is distributed in populations and of the factors that influence or determine the distribution of disease.

More about Dr. Foege –

<https://www.sph.emory.edu/departments/gh/fellows/foege/bill-foege/index.html>

OBJECTIVES

1. Understand vocabulary & key concepts
2. Distinguish b/w association & causation
3. Describe study designs
4. Develop skills to read, understand, & apply research

EPIDEMIOLOGY 101

This course is for you

STRUCTURE

6 ONLINE MODULES

1. Basics - history, vocab, concepts
2. Association vs. causation
3. Infectious diseases
4. Study designs
5. Statistics
6. Disease prevention & preparedness

STRUCTURE

6 ONLINE MODULES

- Videos (+ slides with notes)
- Flashcards
- Quizzes
- Reading assignments

STRUCTURE

6 ONLINE MODULES

- Must be done in correct order
- Must get 80% or better on quiz
- Certificate at end

