

Scumble & Glaze

Tonal Landscape Study in Acrylics

Notes

Materials

Acrylic Paints

Essentially, you just need a tube of white acrylic paint and another darker colour (ideally neutral - such as the umbers, black or neutral blues).

If you don't have these paints available, you can buy these colours from Jackson's Art online:

- Titanium White
 - <https://www.jacksonsart.com/old-holland-new-masters-classic-acrylic-paint-60ml-titanium-white>
- + One of pigments (you only need one of these, pick whichever appeals to you most!)
- Payne's Grey (Cool Grey)
 - <https://www.jacksonsart.com/old-holland-new-masters-classic-acrylic-paint-60ml-paynes-grey>
- Burnt Umber (Warm Brown Grey)
 - <https://www.jacksonsart.com/old-holland-new-masters-classic-acrylic-paint-60ml-burnt-umber>

Miscellaneous

- Small panel (about 6x8 inches)
 - <https://www.jacksonsart.com/ampersand-gessobord-panels>

- 3-5 brushes (small to medium size)
 - <https://www.jacksonsart.com/pro-arte-polar-brush-wallet-set-of-5-2-4-6-8-round-3-8-flat>
- Pencil
- Medium cup (any spare, small container will do)
- Easel
- Palette knife
- Paper towel or cleaning rag