

POLICE CONSTABLE
RECRUITMENT PROGRAM
CLASS

May - July 2025

Dear Police Constable recruit,

Thank you for choosing us to guide you on your journey towards achieving your policing career aspirations. Whether you are just starting out or seeking to overcome previous setbacks, we are dedicated to supporting you every step of the way until you achieve success.

Please find attached the schedule for our upcoming curriculum, including class dates and times. Each lesson will be offered multiple times to accommodate your schedule. While attending sessions multiple times is optional, we encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to reinforce your learning and preparation.

In addition to our core curriculum, we will also offer additional interview preparation classes, which you may attend based on your readiness and interest. These will be posted in your SIGNAL class group chat. This is a chance to enhance your skills and excel in your interview preparations.

It is crucial to carefully read through the homework assignments and complete all homework.

A common oversight among applicants is failing to follow instructions and lacking preparedness. We urge you to approach this process with professionalism and attention to detail, traits that are vital in the police recruitment process.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to us privately or through your class group chat. Remember, no question is too trivial, and your inquiries are likely shared by other students.

Please begin working on the assigned homework which was sent to you by email before our group sessions commence. Do not submit your homework until instructed to by your teacher.

However, please send us your resume at your earliest convenience to Contact@ontariopolicepreparation.ca

We look forward to embarking on this journey with you.

Best regards,

Canada Police Preparation Team
