

Grammar

Definite article (the) – Exercises

Decide whether you need 'the' to complete each sentence or not.

Example:

Let's have a look at ... (blank) ... figure 3 on ... the ... third slide.

1. It seems that flu virus has hit elderly hard this winter.
2. I found movie better than book it was based on.
3. atmosphere in office is tense today because boss is angry.
4. I can't find shirt that I ironed yesterday.
5. This is most effective way of helping homeless.
6. Viruses cannot be killed by antibiotics.
7. Some people enjoy reading books while others enjoy watching movies.
8. She's made up her mind to study social sciences.
9. She teaches yoga on Wednesday evenings.
10. I always snack for lunch and have a proper meal for dinner.
11. They're getting married on Valentine's Day.
12. first fully electric sports car was manufacture by Tesla.
13. Central African Republic is a member of United Nations.
14. This information was leaked to Times.
15. Have you ever visited Coliseum?
16. Danube is not as blue as it used to be.
17. Mount Everest is in Himalayas.
18. When I was visiting Unites States, I stayed with Martins.
19. The earthquake victims were being helped by Red Cross.

20. Greenpeace has protested against this law.
21. UNESCO is a part of UN that promotes cooperation among nations.
22. He's doing his postgraduate studies at University of Sydney.
23. They're graduates of Westminster College.
24. She's been admitted to Harvard Law School.
25. I'd love to learn to play saxophone.
26. I find commuting by train a lot easier than driving.
27. She managed to hop on bus just before doors closed.
28. Read third paragraph on page 92.
29. You're in room 508 on fifth floor.
30. He's ill, so he isn't going to school today.
31. The play I went to see was performed in school.
32. He goes to church every Sunday to attend service.
33. The refugees were sheltered in church.
34. He's working at front desk this morning.
35. Someone had left a message for me at reception.