

Grammar

Phrasal verbs – Exercises

Answer these questions by replacing the object with a pronoun.

If the phrasal verb is separable, you must put the pronoun between the two parts. If it is inseparable, it goes after.

Examples:

Did you take up judo when you were young? Yes, I took it up when I was young. ...

Did Ken come across these articles at college? No, he didn't come across them at college. ...

1. Does she often bump into John? No,
2. Does he take after his mother? No,
3. Did you get on the bus at the station? Yes,
4. Will they be looking into the complaints? No,
5. Does he look after the dogs? Yes,
6. Is she getting over her cold? Yes,
7. Have they gone over the figures? No,
8. Did you take to swimming as a child? No,
9. Must I cut down on sugar? Yes,
10. Is he getting into public speaking? No,
11. Do these shoes go with my coat? No,
12. Are you looking forward to this trip? Yes,
13. Does he need to brush up on his language skills? Yes,
14. Will you be dealing with these requests? Yes,
15. Have you been looking for your glasses? No,
16. Does she get on with her neighbours? No,
17. Is she seeing to the latest enquiry? Yes,

18. Are you going to sign up for this workshop? No,
19. Are you ready to crack on with this task? Yes,
20. Have they called off the meeting? No,
21. Are they going to work out the price? Yes,
22. Has he given up smoking? No,
23. Are you going to blow up these photos? No,
24. Will that speed up our connection? Yes,
25. Is he bringing up his daughter? Yes,
26. Have you pointed out this issue? No,
27. Are you going to throw out your furniture? Yes,
28. Have you dropped off the packets? No,
29. Have you figured out the joke? Yes,
30. Have you filled up her glass? No,
31. Have they sorted out the problems? Yes,
32. Have they laid off Peter too? Yes,
33. Did you look up his address? No,
34. Have they put off their trip until next year? Yes,
35. Is she going to turn down their offer? No,
36. Have you turned off the lights? No,
37. Is she showing off her jewellery again? Yes,
38. Did they put out the fire in time? Yes,
39. Did she mess up the interview? No,
40. Have you tried on these gloves? No,