Think about an area of your life that is challenging you right now. Write a prayer to God asking Him
for wisdom in this area.

Pick one of the three bible verses listed to verse map in your journal or prayer diary.

- Proverbs 14:23
- Ephesians 2:10
- Galatians 5:23-24

- a. Look up the meaning of your name. Write it down in your notebook or journal.
- b. On a sheet of drawing paper, create a poster with your name and its meaning(s).

Conduct a survey of 20 or more teenage girls in your school to show the relationship between self-perception and academic performance. Display your results in a pie chart or bar graph. Here are some sample survey questions:

1. On a scale of 1 to 10, how much do you think a person's self-image of self-esteem affects their academic performance?
2. Do you think people with a good self-image perform better in school than people with a poor self-image?

Without writing, talking or texting, demonstrate what you think
this verse means:

"Promise me, O women of Jerusalem,
not to awaken love until the time is right."

- Songs of Solomon 8:4

Create a crossward puzzle that could be used to review the following terms and verses:

- hygiene
- diet
- meal plan
- stress
- wellness
- sexuality
- purity
- 3 John 1:2
- 1 Corinthians 10:31
- Matthew 11:28
- Psalm 119:9
- James 1: 2-4
- Psalm 94:19
- Philippians 4:6-7

Take one of your favorite songs
or a current pop hit
and re-write the lyrics so that the song talks about inner beauty and/or modesty.

Take one of your favorite songs
or a current pop hit
and re-write the lyrics so that the song talks about identity and/or courage and/or leadership.

Hand-write a thank you letter or card to a woman you look up to and mail it to her.

A decorative border at the top of the page featuring stylized pink and purple flowers with dark centers and green leaves on a bright yellow background.

Create a comic strip telling a funny story where the social media profiles of two teen girls are the main characters.

Create a dialogue between two friends that demonstrates a healthy conflict resolution. You could write this as a journal entry, a blog or short story, a video or as a computer animation.

Recall a time when you had a conflict with someone. Write about the experience using only names of songs and/or names of movies/tv shows.

Get the covers of a few magazines targeted to teen girls and women. Circle any images, or statements on the cover that indicate female stereotypes, misrepresentation of women or over-sexualization of women and girls.

Using pictures and symbols only,
(no words), design an ad poster
that promotes fair representation of women in media.

Write a biopoem for a female leader you admire.
Use these guidelines:

- Line 1 - First name
- Line 2 - Three of four adjectives to describe the person
- Line 3 - Important relationship (daughter of...mother or...)
- Line 4 - Two or three things, people or ideas that the person loved
- Line 5 - Three feelings the person experienced
- Line 6 - Three fears the person experienced
- Line 7 - Accomplishments (who composed...who discovered)
- Line 8 - Two or three things the person wanted to see happen or wanted to experience
- Line 9 - Her residence
- Line 10 - Last Name

Look up facts and stats about a social issue affecting women and girls in your city, town or county. Create some form of media (social media quote pics, video, slideshow, podcast, etc.) to share what you find with others.

With a partner or in a team of 3-4 people, create a song or poem that expresses your own definition and feelings about injustice.

Pretend that you have to give a speech to room full of people, persuading them to vote for you to be the President of the United States. Write your speech.

Imagine that you could start a business today. What kind of business would you start? Create a business card that includes your name, your company's name, your position in the company, and the company's website address. You may use fictional contact details if you wish.)
