

Grammar

Uses of the verb 'have' – Exercise

Change the following sentences into negative or question form as directed.

If a contraction is possible, use it.

Examples:

She's got a terrible headache. (negative) ... She hasn't got a terrible headache. ...

She has to see a doctor. (question) ... Does she have to see a doctor? ...

1. They have many more miles to drive. (negative)

2. She has some bills to settle. (negative)

3. We had a villa in the countryside. (negative)

4. It has an expiry date. (question)

5. They have vineyards in this region. (question)

6. He had an incurable condition. (question)

7. She's got a student loan. (negative)

8. I've got a lecture tomorrow. (negative)

9. We've got a long way to go. (question)

10. Ben has got a lot of savings. (question)

11. I have to replace the light bulbs. (negative)

12. She has to restart her trial period. (negative)

13. Sam had to drop off the kids at school. (negative)

14. It had to stay in the fridge. (question)

15. We have to head back to work. (question)

16. She has to report the incident to her boss. (question)

17. She's got to work this weekend. (negative)

18. We've got to start all over again. (question)

19. She usually has a snack for lunch. (negative)

20. They have an office party every Christmas. (negative)
21. Sam had a cigarette after lunch. (negative)
22. He has his medication in the morning. (negative)
23. Jan always has a nap in the afternoon. (question)
24. You had a shopping spree yesterday. (question)
25. They often have huge arguments. (question)
26. Tony has a haircut once a month. (question)
27. She has the office cleaned twice a month. (negative)
28. They often have a driver drive her home. (negative)
29. Len had a plumber install the new sink. (negative)
30. I had my bathroom redone last year. (negative)
31. Tim has his beard trimmed once a week. (question)
32. She has her assistant answer all her e-mails. (question)
33. He has his teeth checked every six months. (question)
34. Jo had her lawyer change her will last month. (question)
35. Peter had his suit dry-cleaned yesterday. (question)
36. He's taken up the matter with his boss. (negative)
37. We've consulted a specialist. (negative)
38. They've had to sell all their assets. (negative)
39. Laura has had this phone too long. (negative)
40. I've already had dinner. (negative)
41. This story has attracted a lot of attention. (question)
42. He has had his hair dyed. (question)
43. She has had someone do her accounts. (question)
44. Paul has had to rewrite his essay. (question)
45. They'd had supper before going to bed. (question)