Message Statement of Each Section	God created mankind in his image to reflect His glory, but when man tries to be like God, sin enters and conflict and chaos arise.			The LORD makes an unconditional covenant with Abraham. The LORD keeps His promise through the Patriarchal line and their descendants, even in the midst of multiple threats to the promise.				The LORD calls His people out of captivity, and makes a conditional covenant through Moses, as He continues His unconditional covenant through Abraham.				Joshua and the Israelites enter the long-awaited Promised Land; however, when the generation after Joshua dies, the LORD is not remembered.			The LORD's people want an earthly king, and He allows it. The LORD aligns some characters to partake in the ancestral lineage to the King of Kings.
