

THE ROLE OF SPIRITUALITY IN THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN TREATMENT EXPERIENCE - INTRODUCTION

TIFFANY M JENKINS LPC LCADC CCS

FACILITATOR INTRODUCTION

Who is Tiffany Jenkins LPC LCADC CCS?

- African-American/Black Female

- Wife
- Boy Mom x 2
- Daughter
- Sister
- Friend
- Author
- Student

- Founder and CEO of Awakening Change Counseling Services, LLC (est. 2018)

- Educational highlights:

- Masters of Professional Counseling
- Masters of Addictions Science
- EdD in Organizational Leadership w/Behavioral Health concentration (in progress)

- Currently licensed as

- Licensed Professional Counselor (NJ & PA)
- Licensed Clinical Alcohol

and Drug Counselor (NJ)

- Certified Clinical Supervisor (NJ)

- 20+ years of experience with various populations

- Juvenile and Adult Drug Court
- Corrections based treatment
- Medication-Assisted Treatment Programs
- Court-ordered clients
- Individual, Group, and Family Therapy

COURSE OVERVIEW

MODULE 1:

Cultural competence and therapeutic alliance

MODULE 2:

Spirituality and religion in the assessment and treatment process

MODULE 3:

Spirituality and religion in the African-American community

MODULE 4:

Connecting and collaborating

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

1

Define cultural competence and identify the impact on client engagement and service outcomes.

2

Define spirituality and religion as they relate to cultural competence and explore their effect on treatment outcomes.

3

Recognize their spiritual/religious biases and the ways these biases impact the African-American client's experience with treatment.

4

Understand ethical guidance on cultural competence and spirituality

5

Identify ways to collaborate with faith leaders to provide clients with a holistic treatment experience.

HOUSEKEEPING

- Some modules will include additional reading materials that must be reviewed in order to complete the module.
- In order to receive full CEU credit for this course, you must complete all modules and pass the quiz with a score of at least 80%.
- If you have any issues while completing the course, please send an email to info@awakeningchange.org and put “AA Spirituality Training Issues” in the subject line. You will be contacted within 48 business hours with a resolution