

WELCOME PARENTS!

Welcome to your online course, Improving Your Child's Learning Power! I know you're a dedicated parent who values learning and is willing to try something new, or you wouldn't be here.

I'm James Haupt, and I'm honored to be your facilitator and guide for the course. I'll work alongside you and help you discover the new science of learning. Let me tell you that it's a game-changer for the overall success of your child – it's that powerful! I intend to create a new parent-student relationship and context in which you are more often pointing your children in the right direction while they are doing much more of the heavy lifting than you are!

Taking personal responsibility for smarter learning is the basis of our work and your kids will feel so capable and empowered as a result.

I'm guessing that college readiness is important to you. So, wherever you think your child lands on the spectrum of college readiness, this course provides practical tools and effective solutions to help prepare your child for the rigors of college.

Why “Learning How to Learn” Connects to College Readiness

In our rapidly-changing world, a significant advantage goes to those who possess advanced learning skills. In five lessons, we will help you prepare your child to be a savvy, efficient and effective learner. The future in college and beyond, belongs to those who are experts at learning!

Studying smart is a learnable set of strategies and habits, which involve:

- Understanding how people really learn
- Acquiring new and better study behaviors, and
- Practicing them – powered by your encouragement and support.

Parent Coach

I'll introduce you to the idea of becoming a parent coach for your child which will subtly, but powerfully, alter the current relationship you have with your future self-teacher! Being a coach will not require more work from you – I know you're already busy. It is simply a reallocation of your time to help your child build skills needed for college readiness.

I believe every kid can become a ‘Superlearner’ when equipped with right tools. You've got this and I'm right here by your side. Now, let's do it!
