

IPEC Module 1 Video 3:

Intro to IE

Resources

- Drama Based Pedagogy approach explained.
- Theory of Being's Being Touchstones.
- Cultivating Collective Care website.
- Friere, Paulo. 2000. Pedagogy of Freedom. Get here or your favorite bookseller.
- Legassic, Cory. 2024. "Towards a Theory of Collective Care as Pedagogy in Higher Education" in Learning Landscapes.

<https://files.eric.ed.gov/fulltext/EJ1434732.pdf>

Accreditation Questions (Quiz in Teachable)

- What is an Intimacy Educator?
- How is an IE different from an Intimacy Coordinator and/or Director?
- What is the knowledge base required to be an Intimacy Educator?
- What are methods of activating dialogue?

Self-Reflection Questions

- How has education been created collaboratively and individually?
- What are the methods in which dialogue has been created in your teaching?
 - How can you continue to invite dialogue into the spaces you're in?
- How are these practices integrated into your teaching? What could be added?

Embodiment Exercises/Questions

- Describe a “band-aid” situation you’ve been put in. Where do you feel that in your body?
- Pause and think about your teaching style. Where do you lead from in your teaching?