El niño es bajo. The boy is short.

El chico es alto. The kid is tall.

El chico es bajo. The kid is short.

New vocab word: La niña – The girl

New greeting vocab- Asking how someone is doing:

¿Como estas? Estoy (muy) bien, gracias. ¿Y tu?

How are you? I am (very) good, thank you. And yourself?

Months of the Year – Los meses del año- View the printout on teachable to practice!

Using Colors as Adjectives in Spanish

Colors have two forms. The form that ends in O is used for our -el words (masculine words). There is also a form for colors that describes la words that ends in A. This form is used for our -la words (feminine words).

See the examples below:

El libro es amarillo. El teléfono es rojo. El libro es morado.

La puerta es amarilla. La pelota es roja. La lámpara es morada.

See if you can practice having your kids describe nouns correctly using the correct form 😊

The following colors are colors that are always the same no matter what the noun is:
Verde, azul, gris, café/marrón, celeste.... See below:

*El libro es verde. El teléfono es gris

La puerta es verde. La pelota es gris.

Break song (new) – “Tengo Hambre” (I am hungry/I have hunger) * See the teachable video to practice! Tengo Hambre Video

We only sang the first three verses below- we will add on in coming weeks!

Lyrics:

Tengo hambre, tengo hambre, tengo hambre.

Y quiero comer.

Tengo prisa, tengo prisa, tengo prisa.

Y quiero correr.

Tengo vergüenza, tengo vergüenza, tengo vergüenza,

Y me voy a esconder!

English Translation:

I am hungry, I am hungry, I am hungry, and I want to eat.

I am in a hurry, I am in a hurry, I am in a hurry, and I want to run.

I am embarrassed, I am embarrassed, I am embarrassed, and I want to hide!
