

Lesson 1

Welcome to the course, "Make Four Accurate Predictions in 1 Hour».

To complete this course, you must first complete the "Make Your First Forecast Introductory Course". It's completely free and gives you all the basics of predictive astrology

In this course, you will learn new techniques for astrological forecasting, learn about derived houses, alternative rulers, and much more.

At the end of the course, you will receive a description of 4 situations and make accurate predictions about how events will unfold. You will also be able to indicate the exact dates of when these events will occur.

Finally, we will compare your forecast with reality - you will be amazed at how accurate you were in your predictions!

We closed the last course with an overview of all existing techniques in horary astrology. What you have already learned is highlighted in blue in this slide. The tools covered in this course are highlighted in red.

As always, the first part of the course will focus on theory and practical exercises, and the second on pure predictions and comparison with reality.

Let's get started on this wonderful journey, see you in the next lesson.
