

Business English Space

Exercise 3

- Draw lines to complete each sentence 1-5 with the best ending, A-E.
- Use each ending once only. You'll need to think in particular about the meanings of the first word in each ending.

Sales of company products

1. Domestic sales are stable,
2. Sales in Japan are expected to rise
3. Exports to the USA have increased,
4. We are planning a new range of baby clothing,
5. Production will be reduced by 5% in September

- A. if we increase our advertising there.
- B. unless orders for our products rise.
- C. while exports have risen slightly.
- D. as sales of the existing range are beginning to fall.
- E. although the weakness of the dollar has made them more expensive.

Which word from A-E could be replaced by

6. whereas?
7. because or since?
8. if ... don't?