

MODULE 4.1
The different ways to pronounce the letter “E” in French

E = [ə]

NOTE:

“Minimal sound” (schwa)

“er.” / “uh.”

NOTE:

Refer to Module 3.1 for letter combinations creating a new sound and involving the letter “E” (eg. “ein”, “en”, final “-er”, final “-ed”, etc.)

► MODULE 4.1.

1. When there's no accent on the "E"

- "e" = [ə] (schwa)

EXAMPLES: je, me, le

- "e" = mute (in most regions of France)

- in final position

EXAMPLES: Louvre, France, Anne

- when unnecessary (word can be pronounced easily)

EXAMPLES: nous appelons, je regarderai, le peloton

► MODULE 4.1.

1. When there's no accent on the "E"

"e" = [ɛ]

➤ Before 2 consonants

EXAMPLES: elle s'appelle Jessica, merci, Versailles

➤ Before the letter "x"

NOTE: "x" is to 2 consonants sounds ("x" = [ks], [gz])

EXAMPLES: circonflexe, exemple

➤ in a short word ended with a sounded consonant

EXAMPLES: mer, bec, set

→ This is to keep a strong sound.

► MODULE 4.1.

2. With an accent aigu (é)

é = [e]

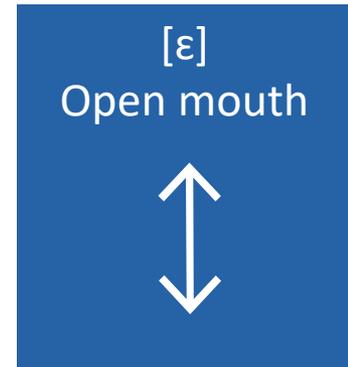

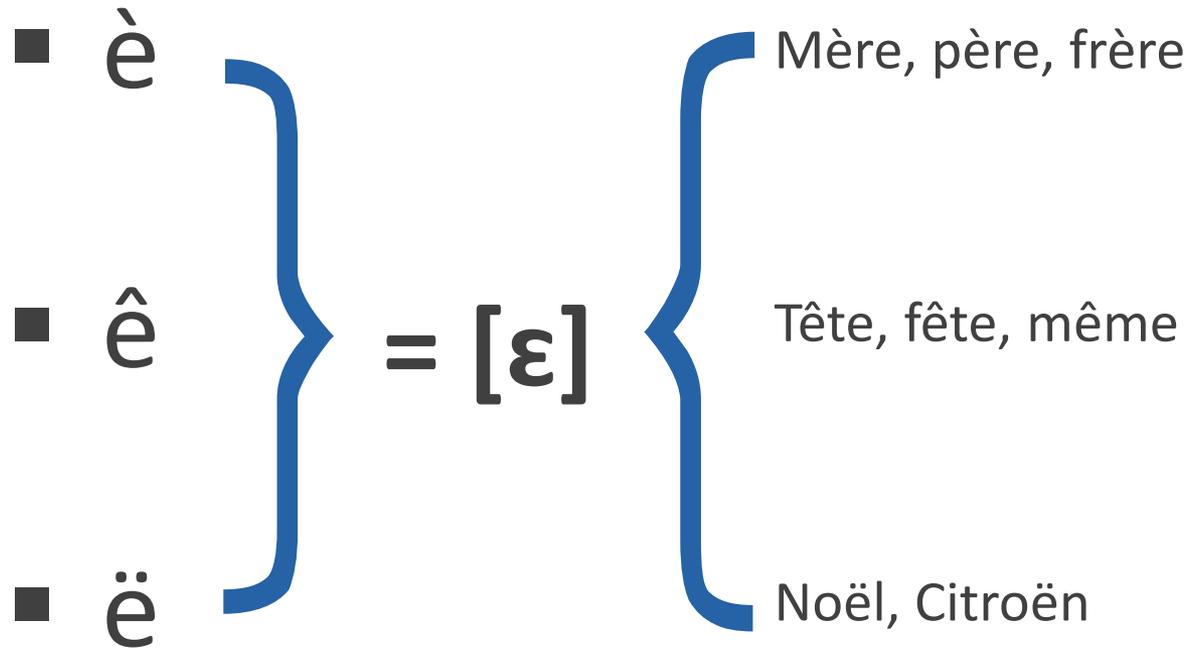

EXAMPLES:

- télévision, téléphone

3. Other accents (è, ê, ë)

EXAMPLES:

Summary

SOUND	SPELLINGS
[ə] (or mute)	e → Just there to make the word pronounceable
[e]	é
[ɛ]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• e (+ 2 consonants)</li><li>• e (+ "x")</li><li>• short word ended with a sounded consonant</li><li>• è</li><li>• ê</li><li>• ë</li></ul>

END OF MODULE 4.1