

Use the following questions and prompts to help you look at, study, and write about (or narrate about) the artwork you are studying.

1. Who and/or what do you see in the painting?
2. Describe what is happening. Who? What? When? Where? Why?
2. What do you like about this artwork? What do you not like?
3. What is the artist emphasizing?
4. What do you see in the background?
5. Why do you think the artist included that in the background?
6. Describe the colors.
7. Describe the texture.
8. Describe the style.
9. Describe how the artwork makes you feel. Does the art make you feel excited, bored, good, bad, scared, weird, etc.? Why?
10. Do your eyes move through the artwork in a particular way? What did the artist do to make this happen?
11. What adjectives or verbs would you use to describe the art?
12. What symmetry or parallelism do you see? What asymmetry do you see?
13. If you were to recreate this art, what would you do differently?
14. Can you tell something about the artist by looking at this artwork? What is it?
15. If you could ask the artist a question, what would it be?
16. What story is being told through the artwork?
17. Would you like to be in this story? Why or why not?
18. What artwork could come next if this were a series?