

Words and Definitions for Adjectives Set Five

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these definitions and sentences. This will train your brain to master these words.

Robust = very healthy or very strong

You need to be fit and robust to play the tough and demanding sport of rugby.

Sanguine = describing someone who is positive and hoping for good things

There are many problems with the company, but the CEO is taking a sanguine view about them.

Serene = peaceful and calm

The beautiful woman had a serene smile that caught the attention of everyone she met.

Striking = very noticeable or unusual

The building's modern design is the most striking example of architecture in the city.

Utter = used to emphasise a large amount of something

Lying on the beach in the sun and listening to the sounds of the waves was utter heaven.