

RESPONSIVE SURVEY VALIDATING PARTICIPATION

Select the best answer for each of the following:

1. The word "Ethics" is derived from the Greek word for:
  - a. character
  - b. ethics
  - c. mannerisms
  - d. rules

2. The rules we impose upon ourselves define our _____.
  - a. personal ethics
  - b. professional ethics
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

3. Parents can protect us somewhat from those influences which are _____.
  - a. indoctrinated
  - b. intimidated
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

4. Personal ethics are insufficient to assure responsible behavior of a group because there is no universally accepted belief in _____.
  - a. right and wrong
  - b. God
  - c. how rules should be enforced
  - d. religion

5. The theories which take us beyond the idea of the need to look after each other to the duty to look after each other:
  - a. Obligation and Value
  - b. Necessity and Evaluation
  - c. Need and Duty
  - d. Duty and Influence

6. "There is no expectation of conformity, nor can there be any conformity of expectation, unless _____."
  - a. the group creates it
  - b. the group ignores personal ethics
  - c. the group enforces personal ethics
  - d. the group ignores violations by its members

7. Group experience expressed in a code of conduct allows the individual to learn from other's mistakes:
  - a. without the consequences of having made the mistake
  - b. from situations the individual may not have ever experienced
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

8. Following the rules of a group helps the practitioner to become trustworthy and develop a better relationship with his client by:
  - a. doing the right thing
  - b. doing things right
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

9. The balance between Conscience and Competence requires that you maintain your conduct:
  - a. at the highest level for which you are licensed or certified
  - b. within the area of training or expertise for which you are qualified or licensed
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

10. It is the responsibility of the individual practitioner:
  - a. to obey all local, state and federal laws and regulations
  - b. to adhere to whichever is the higher of the Standards of Practice of the group or of the profession
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

11. The primary goal of the Code of Ethics of both the IACT and the IMDHA is:
  - a. the welfare and protection of individuals and groups with whom members work
  - b. the welfare and protection of the professions of their members
  - c. the enforcement of the rules of the professions of their members
  - d. the codification of the rules of the professions of their members

12. In addition to classroom participation, continuing education requirements can be satisfied by:
  - a. participation in an online course
  - b. use of an approved CD or DVD
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

13. When confronted with a client with an issue unfamiliar to the practitioner, the practitioner should:
  - a. decline servicing the client
  - b. refer the client to a more suitable practitioner
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

14. Integrity means being honest and fair by:
  - a. clarifying the roles they are performing
  - b. clarifying the functions in the roles they are performing
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

15. Assuring Informed Consent involves discussing the following:
  - a. plan for applied services and fees
  - b. confidentiality policies
  - c. both a and b
  - d. neither a nor b

16. An exception to the requirement of strict confidentiality is:
- when permission to disclose is granted in writing
  - when the law requires disclosure
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
17. Members will not use, print, duplicate or distribute the work product of another without:
- the other person's consent
  - appropriate byline or credit
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
18. Members are encouraged to:
- advertise hypnosis as a cure for only certain conditions
  - inform their clients that hypnosis can be used to replace medical treatment
  - work with family and friends to practice hypnosis
  - record all sessions
19. The Ethics Committee will always review complaints:
- from the party claiming to have been wronged even if filed anonymously
  - from someone other than the aggrieved party if there is substantial factual proof of the allegation and it is in regard to a business issue of public concern
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
20. The Ethics Committee is authorized to dismiss the complaint or invoke any of the following depending on the severity of infraction:
- expel the member from the Association and revoke their Association credentials
  - make a recommendation for a public reprimand
  - make a recommendation that the member be reported to legal authorities
  - order the member to make restitution or be suspended
21. The instantaneous availability and access of online information may be:
- lulling us into a false sense of competence
  - tempting us to use a technique before it can be properly tested and practiced
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
22. The Standards of Practice of the IACT and MDHA:
- are different although they are derived from the same Code of Ethics
  - require that the client sign a disclosure and consent form
  - are the same because they are derived from the same Code of Ethics
  - are concerned with behavior of those who practice only hypnotherapy

23. Hypnotists should become familiar with their particular jurisdiction's legal position on the use of Investigative or Forensic Hypnosis in order to avoid:
- contaminating important evidence which may be retrieved through hypnosis
  - disqualifying a witness from being able to testify because he was hypnotized
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
24. Confabulation is:
- the tendency to fill in the gaps of memory to formulate a coherent story
  - the possible side effect of any interrogation whether a person being questioned is hypnotized or not
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
25. The following type of corporation is not ordinarily required to be registered with the Secretary of State of the jurisdiction of its domicile:
- one with the suffix "LLC" rather than "Inc."
  - one that is considered a Sub Chapter "S" as well as having the suffix "Inc."
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
26. Privileged Communication is considered to be a protection for a person and their ____.
- Social Worker
  - Hypnotherapist
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
27. A Disclaimer is:
- a notice of limited purpose
  - a notice of limited liability
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor
28. A Release is:
- permission to perform an act
  - forgiveness for performing an act
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
29. A written contract is considered to be a protection for:
- the client
  - the practitioner
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
30. Copyright infringement could involve copying someone else's material and.
- selling it as your own
  - profiting at the author's expense
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b

31. Copyright is a protection for:
- the copyright holder
  - those works in the public domain
  - those making fair use of material
  - those properly crediting authorship
32. "Fair Use" of copyrighted material is an exception to the rule and is:
- an affirmative defense
  - an automatic defense
  - to be proved by the copyright holder
  - not available to those using reverse engineering or multiple copying
33. The example Hypnosis Release and Disclaimer is intended to be signed by:
- the client
  - the practitioner
  - both a and b
  - neither a nor b
34. The example Authorization for Medical Information Release is intended to be signed by:
- the client
  - the practitioner
  - the insurance company representative
  - the doctor
35. The example Medical Release is intended to be signed by:
- the doctor
  - the client
  - the insurance company representative
  - the parent
36. The example Minor's Release Through a Third Party is intended to be signed by:
- the parent
  - the parent and the third party
  - the parent and the teacher
  - the parent and the practitioner
37. Of the seven deadly sins, those considered to be the most egregious and difficult to overcome:
- Pride and Greed
  - Lust and Gluttony
  - Lust, Gluttony and Envy
  - Wrath and Sloth
38. An attitude of indifference or complacency is an attribute of ____.
- Sloth
  - Pride
  - Greed
  - Envy

39. Impatience is an attribute of ____:

- a. Wrath
- b. Lust
- c. Gluttony and Envy
- d. Envy and Greed

40. An abuse of power or control is an attribute of ____:

- a. Lust
- b. Envy
- c. Greed
- d. Gluttony