

Supplies & Materials

I have listed the supplies I used throughout the class here, but I want to note that you could use any brand and I don't insist on any specific product. The supplies you have on hand will be absolutely perfect. I also recognize that not everyone has the same access to the list of supplies that I provide. I list alternatives and options, but there are many substitutes and different brands. If you are struggling to find the right material, please contact me and I will assist you with alternative ideas!
