

Guiding Questions Module 1: Introduction to Restorative Practices

1. What are your new learnings about restorative practices? How can you apply these in your classroom?
2. From the introduction to restorative and the introductory videos, how might you introduce circles into your classroom?
3. What are the connections you are already making between restorative practices and how they will benefit the social, emotional, and academic facets of your classroom?

Video Links:

Restorative Practices in San Francisco Unified - The top video on the page.

<https://www.healthiersf.org/RestorativePractices/Resources/videos.php#intro>

Restorative Practices at Glenview Elementary - Great intro video for elementary.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qTr4v0eYigM&t=64s>

Restorative Practices at Fremont High School - Great intro video for secondary.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kh8cc_i1gNc

Other Useful Website Links:

Restorative Resources from Edutopia -

<https://www.edutopia.org/blog/restorative-justice-resources-matt-davis>

Books:

The Circle in the Square – Building Community and Repairing Harm, Nancy Reistenberg