

Reading Task 2

Exercise 1:

- Spend 5 minutes writing down all the information that you can remember from the article; “Making sense of capacity cuts in China”. Do not look at the article or any notes you made.
- What was the main message from the article?

Exercise 2:

- Return to the article; “Making sense of capacity cuts in China”.
- How much information did you remember?
- Write down all of the key points from the article.
- What was the main message from the article?
- Has your opinion of the main message changed now that you have read the article again?

Exercise 3:

- Open the additional document with this task; ‘Niamh’s review’.
- Compare the key points that you noted down with Niamh’s key points.
- Are your key points similar to Niamh’s?
- Compare your opinion of the main message with Niamh’s.
- Is the main message that you got from the article similar to Niamh’s?

Exercise 4:

- Highlight, in the document, any new/unknown words or phrases
- Save the document with the highlighted words

Note: You do not have to email me any answers. There will be an opportunity to discuss your answers in the Facebook group.*