

A voluntary form for filing a report with law enforcement, and disputes with credit reporting agencies and creditors about identity theft-related problems. Visit ftc.gov/idtheft to use a secure online version that you can print for your records.

1. Place a fraud alert on your credit reports, and review the reports for signs of fraud.
2. Close the accounts that you know, or believe, have been tampered with or opened fraudulently.

Now

- Leave (3) blank until you provide this form to someone with a legitimate business need, like when you are filing your report at the police station or sending the form to a credit reporting agency to correct your credit report.

Skip (8) - (10)
if your information has not changed since the fraud.

The Paperwork Reduction Act requires the FTC to display a valid control number (in this case, OMB control #3084-0047) before we can collect – or sponsor the collection of – your information, or require you to provide it.

Declarations

- (11) I ☐ did OR ☐ did not authorize anyone to use my name or personal information to obtain money, credit, loans, goods, or services — or for any other purpose — as described in this report.
- (12) I ☐ did OR ☐ did not receive any money, goods, services, or other benefit as a result of the events described in this report.
- (13) I ☐ am OR ☐ am not willing to work with law enforcement if charges are brought against the person(s) who committed the fraud.

About the Fraud

- (14) I believe the following person used my information or identification documents to open new accounts, use my existing accounts, or commit other fraud.

Name: _____
 First Middle Last Suffix

Address: _____
 Number & Street Name Apartment, Suite, etc.

Dates: Indicate when the thief began to misuse your information and when you discovered the problem.

Amount Obtained:
For instance, the total amount purchased with the card or withdrawn from the account.

Your Law Enforcement Report

- (20) One way to get a credit reporting agency to quickly block identity theft-related information from appearing on your credit report is to submit a detailed law enforcement report ("Identity Theft Report"). You can obtain an Identity Theft Report by taking this form to your local law enforcement office, along with your supporting documentation. Ask an officer to witness your signature and complete the rest of the information in this section. It's important to get your report number, whether or not you are able to file in person or get a copy of the official law enforcement report. Attach a copy of any confirmation letter or official law enforcement report you receive when sending this form to credit reporting agencies.

Select ONE:

- ☐ I have not filed a law enforcement report.
☐ I was unable to file any law enforcement report.
☐ I filed an automated report with the law enforcement agency listed below.
☐ I filed my report in person with the law enforcement officer and agency listed below.

Did the victim receive a copy of the report from the law enforcement officer? ☐ Yes OR ☐ No

Victim's FTC complaint number (if available): _____

Check "I have not..." if you have not yet filed a report with law enforcement or you have chosen not to. Check "I was unable..." if you tried to file a report but law enforcement refused to take it.

Automated report:
A law enforcement report filed through an automated system, for example, by telephone, mail, or the Internet, instead of a face-to-face interview with a law enforcement officer.
