

In this example we see our 3 triad "islands". Notice how the perfect fifth is always the lowest note, the root is always in the middle and the third is always the highest note. The chord is a E major chord in all 3 examples.

E Major Triad Shapes (E,D & A Shape)

