

Resources for the course

1. Lecture note (Powerpoint) – This is the most important resources. Down this power point. This is compulsory reading
2. Module note – This is a detail version of lecture note (Powerpoint). This module is a reading material will help the student to understand the module in details.
3. Quiz – This quizzes help the student to make sure that the student understood the concept thoroughly.
4. Reference materials – This reference materials are not compulsory reading but can help the student to master in the module.

Assessments

1. Quiz - Partially graded and the grade is added to the final grade (Total weight is 10% of final grade)
2. Assignment – These are assignments are end of module question in with short answers. Each module will be given one assignment (Total weight of the assignments is 30% of final grade)
3. Capstone project – Students need to complete a project on Islamic finance or Islamic banking (Total weight of the capstone project is 60% of final grade)

How to complete the course

1. Read the whole syllabus
2. Complete the module section by section (Follow the order given the syllabus)
3. Complete quizzes is each section.
4. Complete the assignment and capstone given in the last section. Send all the assignment and capstone project in one email to your instructor given in the syllabus by email.
6. Contact your instructor if you need help. The instructors used to weekly or month live Q & A with students if requested.