Don't let this happen to you, learn to drive your motorhome like a pro ~Mark J. Polk

Enjoy the RV Journey!

Welcome back,

I took the photo (above) when we stopped to refuel in Virginia. I am guessing because it is a diesel-powered motorhome the driver forgot to set the emergency air brake. This was an unfortunate situation you don't want to find yourself in.

If you are new to RVs, or you just need a refresher on towing a trailer or driving a motorhome visit our RV Online Training site and select the training courses(s) that apply to you.

Be sure and check out this month's feature article where I discuss the RV life-cycle and RV lifespan. It is still a bit early for RV spring checks and dewinterizing, so I'll save that topic for next month.

Enjoy the newsletter, and as always if you have family or friends who like RVs and the RV lifestyle please share with them too.

Mark

This Month's Feature Article RV Life-cycle and RV Lifespan

There are numerous variables that factor into RV lifespan, that I will address later, but first let's look at some RV buying traits and buying progression, which I refer to as the RV life-cycle.

This Month's Feature Video

Types of RV Screws & Screwdriver Bits

I always talk about the importance of checking the inflation pressure in your RV's tires, but is your tire pressure gauge giving you accurate information? In this RV video Mark discusses and demonstrates how to determine your tire gauge's accuracy and how to select a quality gauge for your RV tires. WATCH NOW
