

THE NERDY FARM WIFE

Congratulations on finishing this Handmade Lotions & Creams course!

I hope you enjoyed the lessons and videos and learned some new things along the way!

Remember, you have lifetime access to the course, so feel free to revisit and ask questions and leave comments at any time.

To receive your certificate of completion, make sure all of the lessons are marked as complete, including this one. Once the final lesson is marked complete, your certificate should be emailed to you. If that doesn't happen, just let me know in the comments or email me at hello@thenerdyfarmwife.com and I'm happy to help!

I'd love to stay in touch! If you haven't already subscribed to my monthly newsletter, you can do so here:

<https://thenerdyfarmwife.com/newsletter>

In it, I share my newest soap recipes, body care projects, news of my next course/ebook & ideas of things you can make with flowers and herbs.
