Dani Mrdaque

YOUR WATERCOLOR INSTRUCTOR

Dani Mrdaque is a self-taught artist who likes to paint using different techniques including aquarelle, oil painting, acryl colors, graphic arts and chalk drawing. Her work is mostly based on the aquarelle technique. She discovered her talent for painting when she was a child and she has being painted for more than 20 years. The first person who was taught by Dani how to paint and hold a brush was her younger sister. Regarding aquarelle technique, Dani's special area of interest is portraits or painting human face. She is also very interested in psychology trying to show the inner character of the persons whose face is on a portrait. Dani also likes to paint various landscapes.

Her expertise

Dani is an expert in painting human face and their internal emotional expression. She was developing this skill for many years, from her childhood.

Something personal

Although she has a passion for teaching, she also likes to learn new things, she likes to travel and discover new cultures. Dani went to Law Univeristy and she will soon become an expert on Rights of Children.
