Step #1: Relationship

The key to hearing the voice of God is developing a close relationship with Him, because without it you will never know his voice. Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice and I know them, and they follow me; John 10:27. This is the most vital of all the steps but so many miss it. We should always see our Father as a parent who desperately longs for a closer intimate relationship with His children. I mean what good parent in their right mind doesn't desire a meaningful relationship with their children? Yep, My point exactly! Not to mention, it is always your Father's will for his children to know His voice, to avoid being easily deceived for we know your adversary, The Devil is like a roaring lion walking about seeking whom he may devour... this is one of the most effective ways for the enemy to grabbed an upper hand on the children of God, by making them believe God is speaking instead it's the enemy camouflaging his voice to make you think its God. Proper relationship with God is the key to being able to discern Gods voice from the enemy's voice.

Step #2: Identity

Know who you are in Christ. If you don't know who you are in Christ you will believe the lie of the enemy every single time he pops his little head up out of the sand, but when you know who you are in Christ you can definitely tell the enemy he is a liar. Said it loud and proud, THE DEVIL IS A LIAR!!! But, unfortunately, until we really know who we are in Christ, we will continue living a unfulfilled life, lacking the abundance and joy intended for us to live. We will continue to allow the things of this world to beat us down and defeat us. We were all born on purpose for a purpose. Don't live beneath it all. You were created to live above it all. If you don't know who you are in Christ how can you accomplish STEP 1? Selah...Think about it.

• Step #3: Holy Spirit

Yep, that's right. Christ is no longer walking the earth in the flesh. He has ascended and seated on the right hand of the Father; however, the Father didn't leave us helpless and alone He sent us a Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit.

The purpose of the Holy Spirit: {John 14:17-26}. Teach us all things Bring all things to our Remembrance, Lead and guide us into all Truth.

Therefore, it's extremely imperative to depend solely on the Holy Spirit for directions, instructions, and truth. Without this key component there's no hearing the voice of God. Sorry, but it's the truth. We have been so programmed and accustomed to following and hearing the voice of man, or someone with a title, that we are ambiguous to it and we really believe we are operating in the Holy Spirit, when all the while we are actually operating in lack of faith in God and lack of power within us that God gave us to use. Why would God send the Holy Spirit to help lead and guide us if He just wanted us to depend on man? It was never purposed for us to replace God's voice and the guidance of the Holy Spirit with man's voice and guidance. Man is imperfect but the Holy Spirit is perfect in all His ways. Many have made leaders, pastors, ministers, and others their god and God is NOT pleased. God's ultimate purpose for our life is to depend solely on the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit isn't a dance or a shout, or running around a building, don't get me wrong there's wrong with it, do you, however, don't equate it to the Holy Spirit.

Step #4: Attentiveness

Be attentive and pay very close attention in the small stuff. We get so busy that we take this simple characteristic for granted. Don't get it twisted, God is in the small stuff too. It's amazing how God loves to speak to us in a still, "small" voice and too often we miss it because of unnecessary noise in our life or just paying too much attention on the "BIG" stuff or trying to figure out the "BIG" picture not realizing God is in the details.

Don't forget The process is about the journey not the destination. Open your eyes and ears and get ready to hear from God in the things you least expected. Don't put God in a box. He can speak to and through whomever or whatever He likes.

Step #5: Confirmations

THEPROCESSLIFE.COM

My second favorite. Take heed to the confirmations that God sends you based on what He has already told you. God loves us so much that He not only answer our prayers, but He sends us confirmations to confirm what He told us. However, be careful with this one because not all confirmations are from God. The enemy can send confirmations as well based on your fleshly desires. The enemy perverts and duplicates what God originates and orchestrates. This is why Step 1-4 is so important, so you will know the difference to avoid being deceived.

Embrace It, Trust It, Love It

Step #6: Wisdom

Be wise as a serpent, harmless as a dove; Matthew 10:16. The reason Christ said this was because He knew how dangerous it could be sending sheep(Followers of Christ) out in the mist of wolves(World), God speaks through wisdom, knowledge, and provides us understanding. My motto has always been since I gave my life to Christ was "God told me, before He showed me" and then he provided the understanding. He never showed me before He told me, because He protects His children. He doesn't wait until we are in harms way to then try to tell us. He warns us first. Therefore,

Believe it before you see it= FAITH vs. Believe it when I see it= FLESH/FEAR

Step #7: Obedience

Obedience is the BIG one. Obeying God can keep us out of a lot of trouble. When we are doing what God has called and purposed us to do, He sends blessings our way. We don't have to try to make things happen, all we have to do is obey and God will make things happen for us. He takes away the hard part, but of course, being the humans that we are, our nature is to complicate everything. When will we start operating in the truth that God has already taken care of the hard part for us and all He requires is obedience and He'll do the rest. Easier said then done right, trust me, I KNOW!

Remember, God will reward you openly in dew season, just trust and obey Him. I heard this somewhere and it stuck with me, so I will share it. "You don't have to make yourself visible or to be seen when you're obeying the Lord of Lords and Kings of Kings" Selah...

Step #8: Patience

Yep, you got it, after accomplishing steps 1-7, BE PATIENT! If I had to bet money, I guarantee this one is the most difficult of all, the WAITING PROCESS... yes I know, who has time to wait . We have things to do and people to see. Why must we have to wait on everything? Really??? I hate being the bearer of bad news, but WAITING is inevitable and Waiting PATIENTLY is the key to receiving ALL that God has for you. We must not take this process for granted. We must trust God whole heartily during this time like never before. Timing is everything and the right thing at the wrong time is a recipe for destruction. Never mistake God's silence for His absence or your Delay as His Denial.

Writing to God is another form of communication. I love talking to God through written word as well, it brings me closer to Him and increases my faith to know He is hearing my prayers. Writing is another way of venting what you feel and what you're going through, which in turns bring about change, healing and deliverance.

Choose where you would like to keep it and write in it as often as the Spirit leads and especially reference past journal entries when you're feeling your doubts creep in.

About Vito & Marchelle Smith

- In 1994, God saved Vito but at the same time he was still holding on to the things of the world, Jesus was his Savior but not his Lord and it was not until year 2000 when he fully accepted Christ as his personal Lord and Savior
- I was born and raised in organized religion, so I knew of God, but I didn't have a relationship with God. It wasn't until year 1999, I asked God to come into my heart and save me and God saved me
- In 2008, Vito and I started courting and married in 2009
- In 2010, we believed God told us to start writing a book called "The Process" which focused on the "HIS and HERS" process of singleness, however, in the same year, God told us to stop writing and let it go, and of course, we obeyed.
- In 2017, on our 8th year anniversary, God led us to start "The Process" again, but this time it was through YouTube, which is where "TheProcessLife" was created
- In 1 year, our YouTube channel went from approximately 200+ subscribers to almost 4,500 and 12,000 views to 400,000
- We both got almost a decade of experience as inspirational and motivational speakers teaching and sharing the Word of God along with our personal testimonies
- From single's conferences to providing leadership at faith-based organizations to college campuses such as University of North Florida, we've spoken to a variety of audiences about the power of waiting on God to choose ones' mate
- We've inspired many across the globe, from Dubai, to London, to Africa, and the list goes on... United States and Internationally abroad
- We've spoken with hundreds of young singles, older singles, recently divorced, those struggling in marriage, and healthy married couples as well
- Our followers often say we are so real, transparent and non-judgmental which has helped them in their process of waiting, which in turn has allowed them to be open and honest about their struggles during their season of singleness and that is what encourages us to keep doing what God has called us to do. We help many see the importance of waiting on God and how the blessings outweigh the waiting process.

And when we are not sharing our testimonies, providing tips and engagement on our private Facebook page, prepping for our next Q&A Live Stream or filming a YouTube video, we are spending time together with our daughter, Divine, and doggy Butterpup, eating out at our go-to seafood restaurants, playing UNO, Sorry and other board games; dancing to old school music, singing contemporary gospel songs, and watching movies or spending quality time with family and friends!
