

Needn't example sentences

Listen to the accompanying MP3 and read these sentences. This will train your brain to master needn't.

Do you want me to drive you to the airport? Then you needn't worry about taking a taxi.

I needn't have been scared about skiing for the first time. It was so much fun!

Customer: I'd like to book a table for two people.

Restaurant owner: You needn't book, Sir. There's plenty of space whenever you wish to come.

You needn't bother to answer question four. Just complete all the other questions.

All of our rooms are supplied with towels, so you needn't bring your own if you don't wish to.

Jim: I'm going to fix this broken lamp for you.

Tim: Oh, you needn't bother. I never use that lamp anyway.

The police have said that the public needn't panic about the loud explosions that were heard. They were simply army drills.

I bought a brand new television for very cheap yesterday. If you wait for the sales, a new TV needn't cost a lot.

Cats are very hygienic animals. Because they clean themselves, owners needn't wash them regularly like dogs.

Just relax when you try to hit the ball. You needn't smash it or force it to get it over the net.

This museum is free to enter. You needn't pay, but you can make a small donation if you choose to.

This presidential candidate is so popular among the people that he needn't bother campaigning. He's almost guaranteed to win.

Fiona: What would you like for your birthday?

Samantha: Thank you so much, Fiona. But you needn't buy me a birthday present.

James was so nervous about failing the test, but he needn't have been so anxious. He came top of the class!

I know it sounds dangerous, but you needn't concern yourself about my safety. We'll be with experts when we climb the mountain.

The boss said we needn't come in until 11am tomorrow. We can all have an extra few hours' sleep.

To join this company, you needn't have a university degree or be highly-educated. We're simply looking for hardworking, motivated people.

Buyer: How shall I pay?

Seller: You can pay by card, but you needn't pay the full amount now. You can pay half now and half in 3 months.

Here is your recommended reading for this semester. You needn't read every single book, just the ones with a star next to them.

James, you needn't stress yourself out about work so much. Try to relax and forget about it for a while.