

Grammar

'I have been doing' or 'I have done' – Exercises

Choose between Present Perfect Continuous (I've been doing) and Present Perfect (I've done) to complete each sentence.

Example:

It already (stop) raining.

... It's already stopped raining. ...

1. Gloria (study) since yesterday.
2. I (see) this movie many times.
3. He (cry) since I arrived.
4. How long it (snow)?
5. We recently (move) to this area.
6. They already (contact) the police.
7. He (run) this business for a year.
8. Sue just (have) a baby.
9. This never (happen) before.
10. They (chat) on the phone all morning.
11. Karl (not hear) the news yet.
12. I (not see) Tara this morning.
13. How many pages have you already (read)?
14. How much money he (spend) today?
15. Why you (not write) to him?