

Name: _____

Class: _____

General Order G01-02

Please use a pencil to complete the test. Print your name on the Name line above. Read the instructions for each section carefully. When you have completed the test, place your test face down on your desk and raise your hand.

1. You respond with others to an officer-involved shooting involving a patrol officer. Upon arrival you observe several other officers of the same rank. According to the Chicago Police Department General Orders, which of the following would be in charge of the scene until the arrival of a higher-ranking member of the Bureau of Patrol?
 - A An administrative sergeant with two years of seniority in rank
 - B The watch operations lieutenant with three years of seniority in rank
 - C A detective with four years of seniority in rank
 - D A field lieutenant with five years of seniority in rank

2. According to the General Orders of the Chicago Police Department, what is the most effective way to handle when an order is given to an officer and it is in conflict with a recent order given to him earlier in the day?
 - A Advise the supervisor giving the conflicting order of the issue
 - B Advise the subordinate to follow the set of instructions that will most effectively handle the situation based on his own judgment
 - C Advise the subordinate that he should disregard the conflicting orders and follow your instructions as originally given
 - D Advise the subordinate that the must follow the newest set of instructions without question

3. A large-scale incident occurs within District 4 and news crews are already on scene. Personnel from multiple bureaus respond to the scene to assist with the effort to stabilize the scene and restore order to the area. According to the General Orders of the Chicago Police Department, who would be the member in charge of the scene?
- A A lieutenant assigned to District 3
 - B A sergeant assigned to District 4
 - C The Central Area Commander of Detectives
 - D The captain of the Bureau of Organized Crime
4. According to General Orders G01-02 regarding Department Organization for Command, what should be done after a supervisor gives an officer an order and that order conflicts with a previously given order from another supervisor?
- A immediately retract his new order
 - B advise the officer to follow the new order without question
 - C decide to move forward, modify, or retract the order and then advise the supervisor who gave the original order of the conflict and decision
 - D decide to move forward, modify, or retract the order and then have the officer involved notify the supervisor who gave the original order of the conflict and decision
5. Two members of the detective bureau are the first to arrive at the scene of a crime. Which of the following is MOST ACCURATE according to Chicago Police General Orders regarding "Department Organization"?
- A The detectives will wait until an officer arrives at the scene to take command.
 - B The Watch Commander Lieutenant will be in command of the scene.
 - C The member having the most seniority in grade in the organizational structure of the unit will be in command of the scene.
 - D Neither member will be in command of the scene and will wait for a supervisory officer to arrive and take charge.

6. According to General Orders regarding Department Organization for Command, which of the following is NOT a section under the Bureau of Detectives?
- A Detective Areas
 - B Central Investigations Division
 - C Youth Investigations Divisions
 - D Forensics Services Division
7. According to General Orders regarding Department Organization for Command, all of the following are organized areas under the Office of the First Deputy Superintendent, EXCEPT:
- A Bureau of Counterterrorism
 - B Bureau of Detectives
 - C Bureau of Patrol
 - D Bureau of Internal Affairs
8. According to General Orders regarding Department Organization for Command, which section under the Superintendent do the Investigations Division and Confidential Investigations Division fall under?
- A Office of the Chief of Staff
 - B Bureau of Internal Affairs
 - C Office of the First Deputy Superintendent
 - D Office of Constitutional Policing & Reform
9. According to General Orders regarding Department Organization for Command, which of the following BEST describes the units/divisions that fall under the Office of the Chief of Staff?
- A Legal Affairs Division, Risk Management Unit, and Strategic Planning
 - B Strategic Planning, Project Management, and CompStat Unit
 - C Legal Affairs Division, CompStat Unit and Audit Division
 - D Risk Management Unit, Communications Division and Research & Development Division

10. According to General Orders regarding Department Organization for Command, the Tactical Review and Evaluation Division of the organization falls under the command of the

_____.

- A Professional Standards and Compliance Division
- B Bureau of Internal Affairs
- C Office of the Commander, Constitutional Policing and Reform
- D Training and Support Group

