My name is Alexey Borealis. I am the founder of the largest school of horary astrology in Russia, the author of many books on astrology, a TV and Radio speaker in Moscow.

In this course, you will learn about the art of accurate prediction by stars and make your first detailed astrological forecast.

So let's dive deeper.

First... you will learn how to describe future events. You will get acquainted with the technique of planetary essences and receptions. You will learn about entirely new properties of the zodiac signs, and much more...

Then you will make your first training horoscope prediction. I will ask you a question about the situation that has already happened. But you will not know what has happened. Instead, you predict how events unfolded in time, with techniques you have learned.

And after you make a detailed prediction, I'll reveal all the cards, and you can compare your forecast with reality. You will marvel at how accurate your first prediction was.

This introductory course has a purpose. It is to show how incredibly accurate an astrological forecast can be. I want you to feel your first delight when you see how it works. And I guarantee you, you will feel it at the end of the course.

The course divides into two logical parts. First, you will learn about what horary astrology is, get acquainted with the basic terminology. Then, I will present you with a list of the basic techniques you will use in your first forecast.

Next, you will learn the algorithm for reading the horoscope.

In the second part of the course, you will learn more about each of the forecasting techniques. Then, you will make your first prediction.
