

to be - negative, and “yes/no” question forms

Listening Comprehension

Here there will be an audio track with the sentences below; the sentences won't be printed in the book only the instructor will have them. The students listen and complete the exercise. The speech on the audio must be of “real world” speed, students listen twice, fill out the table, and then discuss.

Sentences:

- What's your profession James?
- I'm an architect.
- Is Erika a waitress?
- Yes, she is a waitress.
- Is Mona an actress?
- No, Mona isn't an actress. She is a bookkeeper.
- Josh isn't the manager here. Garry is the manager. Josh is the accountant.
- We are pilots and they are doctors.
- Mark's not an architect, Mark's an actor.
- Is William a cook? Yes he is. William is a cook.
- Jessica is a politician.

Name	Profession
James
Erika
Mona
Josh
Garry
We They Mark
William
Jessica	