

NAVIGATING YOUR PATH

Reflection Questions

- Do you know your spiritual gifts?
- Have you ever coveted someone else's calling? How can you redirect that energy into fulfilling the purpose God has for you?
- How can you be an effective witness in your job?
- How have you previously thought about the relationship between your purpose and your profession?
- In what ways can you be engaged in ministry in your current setting?
- What are some other ways you have found to discern God's will in your life?
- What are some talents you have that are not necessarily spiritual gifts? What are some talents you have that may overlap as spiritual gifts?
- What are some techniques and strategies you have employed to maintain a good work/life balance?
- What are some ways that you can fulfill your calling, purpose, and passion through volunteering?
- What is a time in your life that you were looking for the "next thing" instead of focusing on where you were? Did it take away from your ability to execute in whatever you were doing at the time?
- What obstacles have you faced in the fulfillment of your calling and purpose? How did they impact the execution of your calling?
- What ignites the fire within you? What do you think about at night? Chances are these are things you're passionate about.
- What talents or gifts do you have that you aren't maximizing or using at all? How can you begin to use them?
