Things to Know!

About Us

The XLU was founded by Dr. Angella Banks, DBA, the Founder & President of Xcellence, Inc. Xcellence, Inc. is a 501©3 organization that develops, empowers, and promotes leaders worldwide. As the organization continues to grow, the demand for Dr. Angella Banks continued to increase in the areas of spiritual, personal and professional leadership development and entrepreneurship. It was in that moment in which God gave her the vision of the XLU University to meet the needs of leaders desiring to fulfill their purpose in life. The XLU University is owned & operated by Xcellence, Inc., as a subsidiary.

The XLU Certification program uses a mixed methodology of biblically based principles along with practicality in various areas, to provide specialized coaching of expertise to coachees.

Our Mission

Statement of Faith

The XLU University

WHAT WE BELIEVE.....

It is our conviction that God has given each of us the ability to fulfill his purpose on this earth. It is critical that believers begin to maximize their God-given gifts to create real change. These gifts are needed to have impact in the seven mountain of influence (religion, arts & entertainment, business, education, family, government, and media). The basics of Christian doctrine serves as a foundation for our spirituality walk with our Lord & Savior. Therefore, we affirm the following as our XLU University Coaching Creed:

As an XLU Coach.....

1. I hold myself accountable to the highest ethical principles and level of integrity to honor God with my gifts. I conduct excellence as my personal code of conduct as well as corporately and in all my associations with XLU University, clients, and colleagues.
2. I will maintain confidentiality with my clients and within the confines of the university.
3. I will be truthful and honest with my clients, the nature of our coaching relationship, including the structure, fees, refunds, expectations, actions of accountability and guarantees.
4. I will never release the confidentiality of a client's name, for any purpose, without expressed permission from the client.
5. I will give credit for all copyright and trademark materials, and intellectual property used and belonging to other individuals.
6. I will judiciously avoid conflicts of interest. If for any reason they should arise, I will advise any and all parties involved.
7. I will be clear with my clients regarding the parameters in which I have been trained and certified through XLU University.
8. I will continue to seek additional training and learning opportunities to improve my XLU coaching career.
9. I will refer clients to other XLU coaches if I am not specialized to assist them in the identified areas of need. I realize the client's needs are priority and should always come first. If I am unable to meet the needs of the client, I will relinquish my coaching services.
10. I will honor my Christian values and the XLU University's mission to maintain a signature of excellence in all services I perform.
