
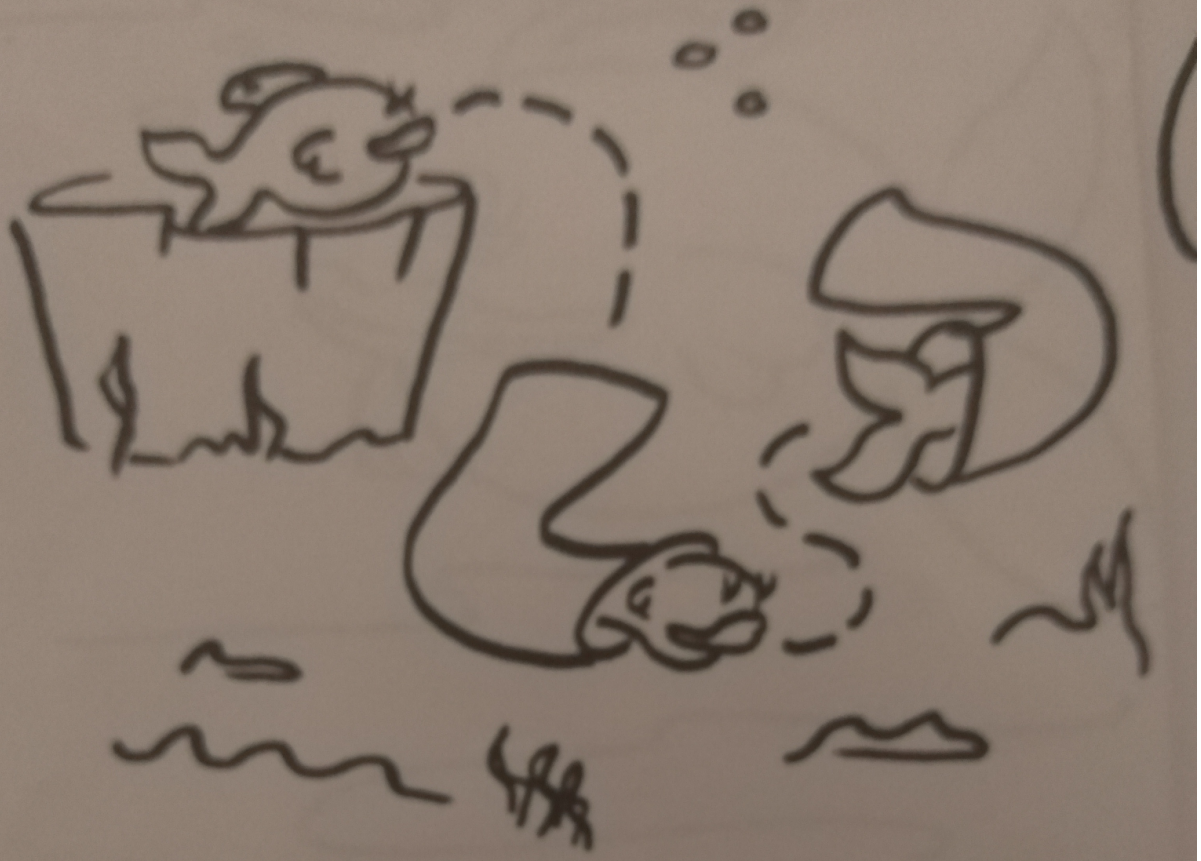
A Fine Fish

Long Vowel

I, U

There was a fine fish that lived in a pond. She was a cute fish with a thin white stripe on her top fin.



The fine fish had a grand time in her pond. She would swim and slap her fin. "I like my pond," she said with a smile.

She would swim by a tub
and into a slim tube, where she would hide.

She would slide on the slime on the edge of the pond. Fine Fish smiled as she slid from the top of a sand dune.

Fine Fish would bite a bit of a plant here and there.
Life was grand!

One day Fine Fish saw a slim fish in a twine net that looked like her twin. Fine Fish bit and cut the twine so the fish could swim.

"Hi! My name is Tim. You came just in time. You look like my twin!" said Tim the twin.

Fine Fish and her twin would swim in the pipe and the tube. They would swim by the tub and slide on the slime. They had a grand time in the pond.
