

Strengthen the capacities that support collaborative work such as facilitative leadership, communication, information sharing and shared accountability. These elements strengthen the ability to move through the stages of the community learning model.

Set benchmarks and use indicators to assess the impact and quality of actions; learn from experiences and translate that information into more effective actions.

Make sure the planning leads to action, both within planning processes and at each stage of implementation.

Clear articulation of the results sought is at the center of the model. The desired results and the re-assessment of them drive the community learning process.

Ensure the various people, perspectives and systems involved in the work are meaningfully engaged in the process.

Create a high-quality conversation that clarifies values, surfaces tensions and taps into creativity, leading to concrete plans that achieve results.

Community Learning Model