- 1. What did you hear? What did God say to you as you listen to the session?
- 2. What do you think? What does it mean to you, how does it apply to your life, your ministry and what difference does it make to you?
- 3. What will you do? What action step will you take? How will you think differently? How will you live differently?
- 4. Now your prayer. This is where you put your thoughts into prayer. It could be a prayer of gratitude or praise. It could be a prayer of confession or a request for God's help. It's up to you. but take a few moments to write a prayer response to what you heard so far?

Lifelong learning is an indispensable tool for every career and organization. Today, continuous learning forms a necessary part in acquiring critical thinking skills and discovering new ways of relating to people from different cultures. To live a life without continuous learning is unthinkable. “The only thing that is constant is change,” Heraclitus famously said. Change in your career. Change in your personal life. Change in your community and organizations. One of the most effective ways of dealing with change is lifelong learning

SEVEN REASONS TO PURSUE CONTINUOUS COACHING AND EDUCATION

WHAT IS CONTINUOUS LEARNING?

Continuous learning is your self-motivated persistence in acquiring knowledge and competencies in order to expand your skillset and exploit future opportunities. It forms part of your personal and professional development in an effort to avoid stagnation and reach your full potential. Knowledge is at everyone’s fingertips. Those not making use of this opportunity will remain where they are, their capabilities diminishing in importance.

Here are seven benefits that lifelong learning brings. These seven benefits of lifelong learning should be reason enough to never stop learning.

1. Remain relevant. Don’t be left behind. Ensure you remain relevant in your spiritual life by keeping up to date with trends and adapting your skillset. To function effectively in this rapidly changing world, you need to learn new things to remain valuable.
2. Prepare for the unexpected. Lifelong learning will help you adapt to unexpected changes. By continuing to learn, you’ll more easily step out of your comfort zone and take on new opportunities.
3. Boost your profile. When you’re always learning, you’ll keep improving, grow in your career or spiritual life and start to receive recommendations from colleagues and other believers. You need to learn new skills to adapt accordingly.
4. Competence leads to confidence. Learning new things gives us a feeling of accomplishment which, in turn, boosts our confidence in our own capabilities; you’ll also feel more ready to take on challenges and explore new ventures in ending gospel poverty.
5. Spark new ideas. Acquiring new skills will unveil new opportunities and help you find innovative solutions to problems.
6. Change your perspective. Continuous learning opens your mind and changes your attitude by building on what you already know. The more you learn and apply the new learning, the better you'll get at seeing more sides of the same situation—helping you understand more deeply.

7. Pay it forward. Continuous learning isn't just about you. Lifelong learning helps develop your leadership skills, which then translates into fostering lifelong learning in other individuals, by encouraging them to pursue further education.
